

Magpie Mischief Releases Home Garden Collection

Handcrafted Pottery Made to Brighten Up the Home Chef's Kitchen

WYOMING, Mich., May 1, 2020 (Newswire.com) - Designer Anni Christie from Magpie Mischief is releasing the brand new Home Garden Collection and each product will be individually made by the designer herself. The Home Garden will be released on May 1.

Magpie Mischief is known for helping home chefs who enjoy delightfully crafted pottery as much as they enjoy excellent food.

Thus, for the first time, Magpie Mischief has created an entire product line of her favorite and most popular planters, serving dishes and sugar bowls. The new Home Garden Collection is scheduled to go live on May 1.

The collection will be exclusively sold on the website magpiemischiefshop.com where the limited products are scheduled to sell out by the end of the season.

The pottery is crafted to showcase Christie's unique illustrations and will make home chefs feel as though they're preparing meals with vibrant, durable pieces of art.

Several products come in classic blue and coral pink to capitalize on today's trends.

All Magpie Mischief pottery is made from high-fired and food-safe ceramic which means women will be able to use these pieces for years and pass them on as heirloom pieces.

Her collection also includes herb leaf strippers to help cooks quickly and easily prep rosemary, thyme or cilantro for savory dishes.

Each individual piece of pottery has its own name. A few examples are:

- Maya Serving Dish
- Claire Sugar Bowl
- Alexis Planter Pot with Dish

- Charlotte Two-Tier Herb Dryer
- Amelie Garlic Grater

The Home Garden Collection ranges in price from $9 to $75.

Anni is excited to welcome her fans to the new handmade product line collection they've been requesting.
